Proceedings (Lecture Notes in Computer Science):

This book presents recent advances in the domain of the 3D physiological human that were presented last December at the Workshop on 3D Physiological Human 2009 that was held in Zermatt Switzerland. This workshop was funded by the Third Cycle in Computer Science of Western Switzerland named CUSO, the European project Focus K3D ICT 2007 214993, the European Marie Curie project 3D Anatomical Human MRTN CT 2006 035763 and the European Network of Excellence InterMedia NoE IST 2006 03.
